BROOKLYN.—A correspondent of the Brooklyn Enquirer, writing Oct. 26th, says: "I have come by this news. It has made its appearance. A police sergeant, Sullivan, was the first man to be taken seriously ill, and being very alarming, a man called in, who

The Board of Health yesterday convened to take some action. After a long discussion of the sewage and drainage system, a good deal of fault-finding by the contractors, the following was adopted:

That the honor the Mayor be and he is to be so graciously, requested by the board to select an equal number of men in connection with the board, principally from the business community, to advise and assist the board in the selection, to adopt such measures as may be deemed necessary for the city of Brooklyn in a sanitary condition, with a view of preventing the epidemic of cholera, and to report to the board, "w. t. w."

Mr. Morris Forester has bought of the city, the President of the board, the beautiful estate known as the Delaware river, and the place was formerly of Mr. Cope, whose
